

THIS POSTER YOUR RIGHT

Texas SB 10 violates the U.S. Constitution.

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion..."

Which applies to federal, state, and local governments—including public schools. This is settled constitutional law, not a matter of political preference. In fact, the Supreme Court has repeatedly ruled that the government may not prefer or prefer religion over non-religion.

"The pre-eminent purpose for Commandments on schoolroo
— Stone v. Graham (1980)

By requiring schools to display of the Ten Commandments, t

YOUR VIOLATES

TS This display is required by Texas law (SB 10) – a direct infringement on YOUR religious freedoms.

ne religion over another or on.

posting the Ten om walls is plainly religious.”

ay the King James Version he state is supporting a specific religious belief. Calling them part of history does not change the fact they are religious scripture.

And because students must attend school by law, they cannot avoid these messages. So even “voluntary” religion in school isn’t really voluntary when required by the government.

ILLEGALPOSTER.COM

